Bring the Bicycle Blender to Your School

Give your students a unique experience of blending a smoothie using their own pedal power.

The Bicycle Blender teaches students about good nutrition and physical activity all at the same time. Students can take turns powering the blender and everyone shares in the fruits of their labor.

A perfect compliment to a special event, health fair, sustainability program or other special event for your school.

Brought to you by Safe Routes to Schools and the Youth Leadership Institute.

For information or to schedule the Bicycle Blender for your school:
contact: Peggy Clark
peggy@marinbike.org